Russia Rejects

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko had a luncheon date today which might - or might not - be the turning point in the crisis over financing the United Naitons.

U.S. diplomats guessed that Gromyko, in his first appearance here since the new regime took over in Moscow, would agree to financial discussions rather than force a showdown at the opening of the General Assembly's 1964 session Tuesday.

But suspense remained high for even with a "yes" from Gromyko, the precarious gentleman's agreement proposed by Secretary - General U Thant could collapse because of objections by other U.N. members.

Immediately at issue is application of the U.N. Charter's Article 19, which says any member more than two years behind in its dues shall have no vote in the General Assembly.

Because the Russians have refused to pay for U.N. peacekeeping costs, they have now fallen more than two years in arrears. The United States says the United Nations will lose its basic constitutional and financial integrity if the rule is not applied.

Thant proposed that the assembly, until its Christmas recess, confine itself to matters on cold Tuesday. which there is unanimous agreement. Thus there would be no roll-call votes on which the Soviet vote could be challenged. be held in an effort to resolve above; increasing cloudiness and a little warmer Tuesday.

Diplomatic sources France might scuttle the deal. France falls more than two By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS years behind in her dues next year because she has refused to pay her share of the Congo peacekeeping operation. There was speculation that she would try to force the issue now so that the first fight would come over the Soviet delinquency rather than hers.

Rusk and chief U.S. delegate Adlai E. Stevenson underlined the U.S. stress on the money issue Sunday night as Rusk arrived from Washington. Rush said the United Nations now Hines and Marshall lacked only one vote being unanimous. The defensive team had Knox Nunnally, Texas, and Dale Callihan, Rice, at ends; Ji.m Wil liams, Arkansas, and Loyd Phillips, Arkansas, tackles; Ronnie Caveness, Arkansas; Tommy Nobis, Texas, and Malcolm Walker, Rice, linebackers; Mike Pitman, Texas A&M, and Joe Dixon, Texas, corner backs; Ken Hatfield, Arkansas, and Teddy Roberts, Texas Tech, safeties.

Caveness and Nobis were the only ones to get all the votes while Hatfield lacked only one. Arkansas and Texas dominated the two-platoon team with Arkansas landing seven places and Texas five. Texas Christian got three, Texas A&M, Texas Tech and Rice two apiece and land a single man. Three of the four tackles are from Arkansas.

Only five of those making the all-conference team are underclassmen. Hines, the Arkansas offensive tackle, is a junior while Jim Williams and Loyd Phillips, the Arkansas defensive tackles, are junior and sophobacked the football Scrappers more respectively. Lakers Extend Lead to Three

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS The Los Angeles Lakers, using the formidable formula of a big burst and Jerry West, have pulled out to their biggest lead of the National Basketball Asso- 1 ciation season, three full games over the rest of the pack in the Western Division.

West dropped in 14 of his 30 points in a 39-point Los Angeles burst in the third period Sunday that staked the Lakers to an easy 126-110 triumph over Baltimore.

That decision, along with the Philadelphia 76ers' 97-94 victory over St. Louis, dropped the Hawks three games off the pace. Cincinnati romped over New York 105-95 in the only other game played.

Cutter, in 1934 at Franklin Field here, kicked a field goal out of the rain to give Navy a 3-0 victory.

The score was tied 8-8 with 9:30 to go in the final period when Nickerson, who had missed an earlier conversion attempt, banged home a 20-yard field goal. Navy never caught up.

"Richard Emery left Chicago some time yesterday," I told him. "That's the end of the line for your job. But. I'm sorry to say, it's not the end for me. Shall we go?"

He squinted at my identification again, then he softened. He grinned a little, and motioned for me to come around the car. "Get in. I'll take you where you want to go."

We didn't talk much on the way to the hotel. Both of us were too tired.

I said good night to him at the hotel and went upstairs to my room. It was too early to
